1 – Introduction

Sports Equality is about fairness in sport, equality of access, recognising inequalities and taking steps to address them. It is about changing the culture and structure of sport to ensure it becomes equally accessible to everyone in society.

Dumbarton Curling Club is strongly committed to equal opportunities for all sectors of the community.

2 – Policy

It is the policy of Dumbarton Curling Club to ensure that no participant, volunteer, coach or parent receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of age, disability, race, religious belief, nationality, pregnancy, parental or marital status, sex, sexual orientation, class or social background, transgender or political belief.

3 – Inclusion

The Club welcomes individuals from all parts of the community to enjoy the sport in an environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and will endeavour to provide open access to all those who wish to participate in Curling.

4 – Compliance

The Club is committed to making equity an integral part of all plans for club development in the future and expects all those acting on behalf of the club to adhere to this policy.

5 – Enforcement

The Club will continue to ensure that any incidences of discrimination will be treated fairly and according to the Club's disciplinary procedures.

In pursuance of this policy Dumbarton Curling Club reserves the right to discipline any of its members who practise any form of discrimination on the grounds of a person's age, disability, race, religious belief, nationality, pregnancy, parental or marital status, sex, sexual orientation, class or social background, transgender or political belief.

6 – Review & Amendments

This statement will be reviewed annually and updated as necessary to ensure it remains relevant and effective.

7 – Contact Information

For any questions or concerns regarding this policy, please contact the Club's secretary at the following email address: secretary@dumbartoncurling.club.
